What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative of blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or otherwise stages of these affections, it is often successful in effecting a cure.

"Favorite Prescription" is adapted for the cure of one class of diseases—those of a "neurotic" or "nervous" character, and is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the breakdown, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, relieving pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formula of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into "Doctor Pierce's medicines" by such writers should have more weight with you than the amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

[COMMUNICATED.]

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS.

Will the Gazette please publish the following from the Northern Neck News of August 27? X.

It is announced in Washington and Richmond dispatches that an important meeting of the "democratic leaders" composed of Sen. Martin, Gov. Swanson, Congressman Hay, Flood and Carlin, ex-Speaker Byrd and certain other lesser lights, was held in the rooms of Sen. Martin, at Murphy's Hotel, in the latter city, on Wednesday night last. The object of this gathering, it is stated, was to formulate plans for the election of Judge Mann and his associates on the democratic ticket. The democratic plan of organization provides that all campaigns shall be conducted by the regularly constituted party authorities. The state central and executive committees, of which the Hon. J. Taylor Eliason is the chairman, are charged by party law with the duty of directing the affairs of the party, and, so far as we know, they have never delegated, and have no power to delegate, their authority to any set of men. Do these self-constituted "leaders," who are known in Virginia politics as the "machine," intend to usurp the powers and authority expressly conferred upon the executive and state central committees, or have they merely met for the purpose of telling those committees what they shall do when Mr. Eliason calls them together at some future date. However this may be, we warn them that the votes, if not the counsel, of the supporters of Mr. Tucker in the late primary will be needed to elect Judge Mann.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, who returned to Victoria, B. C., from Dawson and Skagway by the government steamer Quadra yesterday, had a narrow escape from death when he was lost in the woods of Jervis Inlet, northern British Columbia, for five and a half hours on Saturday. He was on a shooting expedition with only a dog for company. He told of nearly falling over a precipice in the darkness when he was rescued by a searching party, headed by Maj. Clark, his aide, and Second Officer Jonsson, of the Quadra. Many searching parties had been sent into the woods after fires had been built along the shore line to attract the attention of the lost governor general. He was utterly exhausted when found, and his clothing was badly torn.

He left the Quadra at 5:30 p. m., and went into the woods where Lord Cascelles the previous day had killed a mountain goat and two deer. After penetrating some distance into the woods he lost his way, and night came on. When he failed to return for dinner there was intense excitement on the Quadra, and the steamship's whistle was kept blowing constantly.

Meanwhile the governor general calmed over fallen trees, fought his way through undergrowth, and slid down rocks in the darkness, taring his clothing to rags. On one occasion he came to the edge of a precipice, feeling his way with an alpenstock, which he carried, as well as a rifle. The alpenstock slipped from his hand and clattered a considerable distance below.

Then he realized what a narrow escape from death he had had. His dog was missing, and he feared it had fallen over the precipice, but it returned afterward.

He turned back, and falling in the darkness to find his way, finally, after many struggles, sank down, exhausted. Soon afterward he saw the reflection of a fire. It was an Indian encampment. He fired his rifle and the shot was heard by a search party.

They hurried him to the shore where the waiting boat took him quickly to the Quadra, on which he was received with joy.

LUCY PARSONS ARRESTED.

Lucy Parsons, who has participated in hundreds of anarchist meetings, and whose husband was executed for his connection with the Haymarket riot of 1886, is now posing as the leader of a new religious sect in Chicago. The police department refused to accept her protestations that she is preaching religion and not anarchy, and Sunday afternoon she was arrested on a street corner while she read from the Bible before about 20 persons. She gave her age as 75 years. When asked if she was not stretching her age a little, she said: "Women generally understate their age." "Are you married or a widow?" asked Jailor Moore. "Neither. My husband was murdered by the state 22 years ago." Charges of disorderly conduct and refusing to move on when requested by an officer were preferred against her.

SEPTEMBER SALE OF HIGH-GRADE FURNITURE

At Manufacturers' Wholesale Prices.

There is a greater demand this season than ever before for furniture combining these qualities: for which our furniture is noted—durability and correct lines from an artistic standpoint. Aside from its high standard of construction and decorative value, we are presenting this reliable furniture as an economic consideration, at manufacturers' wholesale prices, making it possible during this sale to completely furnish a room or an entire house at nearly one-half the estimated cost of attractive, serviceable furniture.

The wise house-maker who can discriminate between cheap, ill-made furniture and that of trustworthy construction, offered at a minimum price, will be quick to appreciate this opportunity not only to add to the beauty and comfort of her home, but to increase that substantial air which signifies carefully selected, high-class furniture.

Delightful effects and suggestions may be secured by an inspection of this exhibition of furniture priced to meet the purchasing power of any shopper who realizes the intrinsic value to be secured in our annual furniture sale.

Among the many articles included in this sale are Drawers, Chests, Washstands, Cheval Mirrors, Bedroom Chairs, and Rockers.
